Dear Sir/Madam

We refer to the above application and would like to inform you that HDB has no objection to list product in HDB Materials List (ML).

The listing in HDB Materials List (ML) is subjected to the following conditions:

- a) HDB reserves the right to review the performance and testing requirements at any time.
- b) The listing does not relieve you the responsibility for the due performance of the product and compliance with project specifications and drawings. Your product will be removed from the listing should we discover any lapse in quality standard or product performance without notice.
- c) None of the product's part, mixture, chemical constituents or brands name shall be altered. Should there be any alteration, HDB shall be formally informed in writing. Any such alteration without prior acceptance by HDB will lead to automatic suspension of the product from the listing when discovered.
- d) The supplier shall inform HDB if there is any change of the manufacturer or production plant location.
- e) Name of HDB or the contents of this letter must not be used or quoted in any forms of advertisement, brochure or publication of the product.
- f) Your product may be subjected to site or factory sampling test. Following the product sampling by our officers, you are required to send the sample for laboratory testing. All testing cost incurred shall be borne by you.
- g) HDB reserves the right to remove the listed product from HDB Material listing portal should the product found to have failed to meet the performance standard.

The listing of this product will expire on 31-Aug-2017. Please note that the product will automatically be removed from HDB Materials List (ML) upon the date of expiry. You are advised to apply early for renewal of the listing 3 months before the expiry date.

Yours sincerely
