CHH726
MPS PlateWorkflow, Administrator

Course goal

MPS PlateWorkflow Administration.

Learning objectives

To master the administration of MPS PlateWorkflow.
To be able to create new users, to configure new clients, to define new configurations for products.

For the administrator to know the software and structure and to be able to carry out smaller error analyses himself.

In the event of a system failure, to be able to switch to the backup server and to restart production.

Participant profile

System Manager PrePress.
Maximum number of participants: 1 per workstation.

Prerequisites

Course MPS PlateWorkflow functions and operation.
Competent knowledge of plate production and IT systems.
The system must be in operation and available for the duration of the course.

Topics

Detailed overview of required planning steps before plate production.
Creating new users and user groups.
Configuring a new client.
Creating new configurations.
Creating or changing Furniture's.
Configuring the start-up templates.
NewsWay Cluster / Toolbox.
Software structure.
Log files / error analysis.
Switching to the backup system.

Course type and methods

This is an instructor led course with lectures, demonstrations, practical exercises, discussions.

Duration

The duration is 3 days on site.

Power and productivity
for a better world™

ABB

9AKK105557E0011

Power and productivity
for a better world™

ABB