

Making power availability available Modular UPS for guaranteed power

Availability is everything when it comes to a UPS, so ABB's modular UPS architecture is designed to make sure that power is always there when you need it.

Each high-reliability, standardized module is self-contained and can be swapped out without switching off the UPS – so the system stays up and maintenance is a breeze.

Availability available now at www.abb.com/ups

www.abb.com/ups

