

ABB Industry Care

Making it easy to care for your capital

Customers tell us that the business areas they care about most are cutting complexity, controlling costs and extending capital life. That means those are things we should care about most.

Introducing ABB Industry Care.

Cut complexity

Avoid hassle, wasted time and unnecessary bureaucracy in handling routine and emergency maintenance.

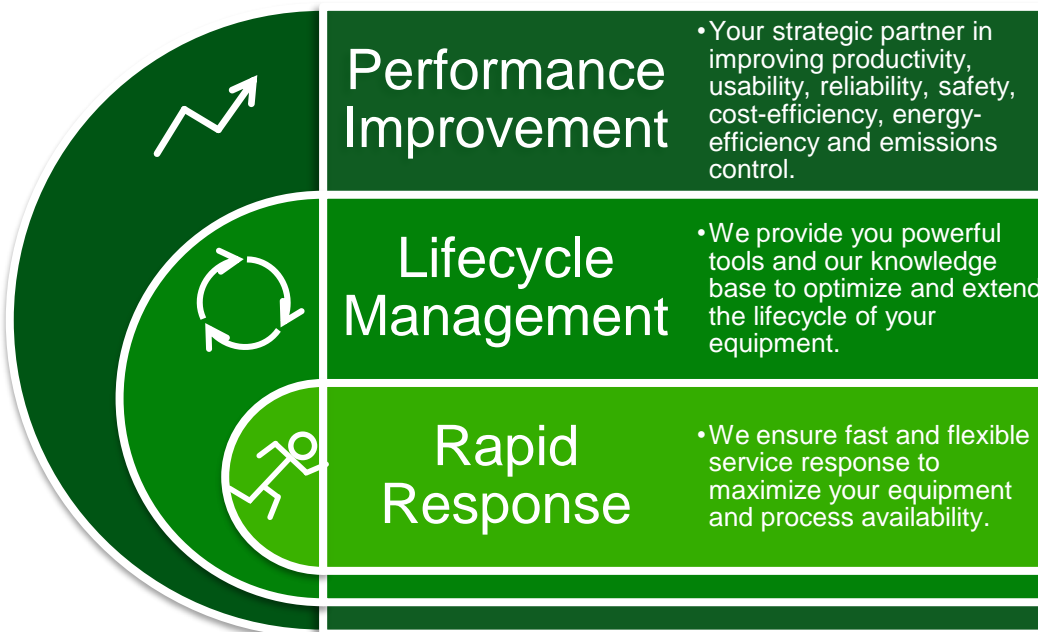

Control costs

Maintenance and other support activities at a fixed annual price, regardless of how often they are used.

Continue capital life

Diagnose issues before they occur, implement improvements that fix them and sustain gains so you get them year after year.

Fix things fast, get into a regimen, constantly improve
