

Did you know we help the Panama Canal increase capacity and improve shipping?

The Panama Canal expansion project doubled the capacity of the Panama Canal by adding a new lane of traffic with increased width and depth of the lanes and locks. This allows more and larger ships to pass through the canal, that will dramatically open up trade routes and benefit global trade. ABB Measurement & Analytics supplied specialized level measurement equipment to maximize the efficiency and accuracy of opening and closing the lock gates.

Learn more:

