

Did you know we help prevent Venice from flooding?

The MoSE flood barrier project for Venice temporarily separates the Venice lagoon from the sea during high tides and storms. Floods have caused damage since ancient times and have become ever more frequent and intense.

ABB Measurement & Analytics supplied specialized pressure measurement equipment to help control the opening and closing of the flood gates during high tides to reduce damaging flooding to this beautiful city.

Learn more:

