Why we need it

We use the personal data that we collect for the following purposes:

- Send you our Whitepaper: 'In vijf stappen een NOM, aardgasloze of all-electric woning zonder gedoe.' (if you have requested to receive this), remind you to download it if needed, and ask you if you are interested in a project scan
- Completing the project scan (if you have requested to receive this)
- Send you our newsletter # Voltreffers (if you have requested to receive this)

We only collect the personal data from you that we need for these purposes.

We process your personal data for the purposes described in this notice when you give your consent. We may also anonymise your personal data so it no longer identifies you and use it for various purposes, including data analysis, improving our services and testing certain of our IT systems.

How we share your personal data

We only share your personal data as described in this notice. We always put safeguards in place to protect your personal data where we share it with a party outside the EU (not the case here).

Met deze nota wordt beoogd de rol van ABB als potentiële verwerkingsverantwoordelijke te formaliseren. We delen uw persoonsgegevens, als onderdeel van het verwerkingsproces, met de volgende soorten derde partijen binnen de EU voor de redenen die hieronder worden beschreven:

Naam van de ontvanger of categorie	Locatie van de ontvanger	Doeleinde	Waarborgen om uw persoonsgegevens te beschermen

The answers given in the Project Scan will be shared with the ABB Energy Module Specialists (working for ABB b.v.) and give our Energy Module Specialists an indication of which Energy Module might be interesting for your project and can give you a better advice.

How long we keep it

We will keep your personal data for 6 months, or the time needed to complete the action (in the case of the #Voltreffers). After this time, we will securely delete your personal data. If necessary to meet legal or regulatory requirements and/or resolve disputes, we may keep some of your personal data after this time.

What are your rights?

You have the right to correct any error in your personal data or update it. Please e-mail: servicedesk@partout.nl

Depending on the jurisdiction in which you are located and in which your personal data is processed, you may also have the right to:

- receive a copy of your personal data that we hold,
- delete your personal data that we no longer have a lawful ground to use,
- port your personal data to a new supplier (if applicable),
- object to the processing of your personal data based on the legitimate interests ground (provided our reasons for the processing don't outweigh any prejudice to your data privacy rights), or
- restrict how we use your personal data whilst a complaint is being investigated, you may make such request at www.abb.com/privacy. In certain circumstances, we may need to restrict the above rights to safeguard the public interest (e.g. the prevention or detection of crime) and our interests (e.g. the maintenance of legal privilege).

If you have any questions about how we use your personal data or wish to make a complaint about how we have handled your personal data, you may contact our Group Data Protection Officer at privacy@abb.com, or submit your complaint at www.abb.com/privacy.

If you are not satisfied with our response or believe we are processing your personal data against the law, you may also contact the Data Privacy Authority in your country of residence or work or where you believe an infringement of data privacy laws may have taken place.
